THE CHATTER

A young boy grabbed my sleeve one Wednesday Night, as I made my way through the Family Life Center visiting with families gathered for St. Andrew's, "Dinner With Friends". He pulled me down and I found myself staring into his big brown eyes. He was in early elementary school and his smile could light up the Duke Energy building at night.

Through the noise of the crowd, I heard him say, "I lvesthensws." I said, "Tell me again, I couldn't hear you." His voice became stronger and he said, "I love St. Andrew's!" Since I thought he was going to ask me for basketballs, I was taken by surprise. I smiled big and responded, "I do, too." We shared a moment of smiling together and I asked, "Why do you love St. Andrew's?" Without hesitation he said, "People are nice and we have fun here."

This summer St. Andrew's shared the fun of following Jesus through our Summer Dinner with Friends on Wednesday Nights, Vacation Bible School, Mission Camp, Music camp and our fantastic Youth Mission Trip. Through all of these summer time ministries, we all grew closer to God, made new friends and practiced our faith in unexpected ways.

Sometimes we were uncomfortable. On the Mission Trip, our youth went to people's houses they didn't know to do home repair work. During VBS, Mission & Music Camp we had to shepherd groups of children, some pretty rowdy, through their activities. But we report Good News! We made it. We loved it and we felt God's love with us, in our hearts and flowing through our lives. We hope and pray that the journey in faith that we took this summer will continue on and on through the year. Let us all be that light in the darkness that shares the love of Jesus with everyone on our way.

FROM THE JOEL COMMITTEE

Gina Collard, Keith Brown, Sue Bullock, Tom Patton, Melanie Tita, Larry Carella, and myself have been meeting as the Joel Committee for several months. It's taken this long because we have wanted to be comprehensive in our work, and St. Andrew's is a place with a long and vibrant history. Our goal all along has been to discern the direction of God's will for St. Andrew's UMC.

We have interviewed past staff and members. We have looked at demographic data. We have listened to feedback from multiple people and groups within the church, and we conducted Christian Conferencing. We are starting to see our process come to its natural end.

We are currently drafting our final report to the Administrative Council. We plan on submitting our report to the Council in September. As a committee we were called into existence by the Council and will give them our findings as a vision and direction for St. Andrew's. We have a handful of specific recommendations, but mostly we will suggest a direction. We have never felt like we had the authority to mandate specific items or make lasting decisions apart from the Council. Rather, we have taken the time to study and pray on behalf of the Council. After we give it to the Council, we will make the report available for everyone to read. In the meantime, here is a brief "leak" of the outline of our report. It will not explain everything. We need a little more time to do that.

We have already given the congregation an advanced view of our vision, and lifted that up during worship in June. This final report will include that vision as well as three other sections. Section one will be list of values. Values are the way we strive to do everything here. Values stretch across programmatic lines. And values are somewhat hard to define for a group of diverse people. But we felt like the following got close to describing our collective identity as a congregation. We value: intimacy with God, relationships with one another, and a reliance on Scripture.

Next we list strategies for ministry. Think of these strategies as general directions or trajectories. Our strategies will include: disciple development, hospitality to all, being a light to the neighborhood, special attention

MISSION AND EDUCATION NEWS

PRAYER PARTNERS FOR OUR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

You are invited to support a child or youth by praying. You'll be given the name of a child in our church as well as some ways you can pray for your special person. You will touch base with your partner so they know who you are and you can begin to establish a relationship with him or her. This is an awesome way to show our kids that their church family cares deeply for them as individuals. Questions? Sign ups: See Jennifer Bryant or Lisa Pool.

DINNER WITH FRIENDS!

Our Wednesday Night Summer Meals were a great evening of fellowship with our neighbors. More folks began attending our Bible Study in Spanish and kids we have met on Wednesdays came to VBS, Mission Camp, Music Camp and our Youth Mission Trip. Thanks to EVERYONE who helped. We saw Jesus over and over this summer. It was a joy.

to youth and seniors, capturing the best sense of family, developing multi-generational ministries, and continuing our tradition of missions.

Finally, we do have a handful of specific recommendations. These include a periodic combining of our two worship services, repeating the Christian Conferencing event, and developing a pastor's class.

The Council will receive our report, and if adopted, use the document as a guide for their leadership and ministry goals. Continue to keep St. Andrew's in your prayers. And continue to consider how you might commit yourself to ever-deepening your discipleship.

Peace,
Dan

THANK YOU

To My St. Andrew's Church Family,

Thank you for all the cards, phone calls and concerns during my knee operation and recovery.

I'm coming along ok but there's still a ways to go. The therapy is tough and painful but I'm hanging in there with it.

Within a few weeks, with your good wishes, I'll be back to normal.

Thanks again everyone for your prayers and concerns.

In God's Love, Dave Thornton

To my church family,

Thank you so much for your love, your prayers, the delightful cards, the delicious food, beautiful flowers, your visits and continued support following my total knee replacement.

You are the best family ever! I have felt your love and prayers in my daily life and recovery. Jimmie and I have enjoyed every delicious bite of food you have brought to us. The flowers from the church altar were wonderful and they brightened up the house. Your cards arrived with the right message and humor that I needed each day. Your visits were enjoyed and always a delight. I am not use to being home, so I really enjoyed seeing our church family.

I look forward to being back at church in September and seeing your smiling faces. In the mean time I send my love and hugs.

Blessings, Norma

St Andrew's Family,

Larry and I would like to express our appreciation for the "special offering" collected for the Oklahoma tornado victims. Our families were safe this time but as you know many families were not. Please continue to pray for the victims and their families as they continue to rebuild their lives. The children and teachers have returned to school and many are and will be dealing with the trauma of the storm for a long time. Larry and I were very touched by your concern and thoughtfulness.

Blessings to all, Larry and Paula Wolfe
