

Discipleship Studies for January – May 2020

The Parables of Jesus

Dates: Wednesdays January 22nd-April 29th, 6:30 in room 30

Facilitator: Jennifer Bryant

What is the class about:

This 12 week study will look at various parables of Jesus and discuss their context and their application to our lives. The main teaching is done through 3 videos for each of the parables and application will be explored through class discussion!

Unafraid: Living with Courage and Hope in Uncertain Times

Dates: Tuesdays February 4th - March 24th, 6:30 in room 30

Facilitator: Cathy Youngblood

What is the class about:

This study looks at Adam Hamilton's book Unafraid, Living with Courage and Hope in Uncertain Times, and helps us explore the fear and anxiety that controls us and will help us learn to overcome these fears and anxieties with courage and hope. This is designed to be a 6-week study, but will be an 8-week study to allow more time for group sharing and accountability over the fears and anxieties that overwhelm us.

Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Uncharted Territory

Dates: Starting March 17th, April 21st, May 19th

10:00 am or 7:00 pm in Room 1

What the class is about:

Our world is changing these days faster than we can comprehend. All of these changes mean we need to reimagine church and we need to reimagine church leadership. This group will meet the 3rd Tuesday of the month and will seek to help us each grow in our leadership for a changing church and world.
