PRAISE AND WORSHIP

SENDING FORTH

Prayers of Intercession – by Kevin Ward

Following each sentence, we respond (R), "Lord in your mercy, hear our prayers."

In the midst of uncertainty, help us to lean into faith and away from fear. R

For our leaders on both local and national levels; give them discernment, guide their decisions, and empower them to lead boldly. R

For our health care professionals; give them courage, endurance, and rest. R

For those who are losing income and fear they won't be able to provide their family with basic needs; give them hope, peace, and provision. R

For those in our midst who are at the greatest risk; calm their fears and give them protection. R

For those who will be forced to live in quarantine; let them know they are not alone. R

When we lack understanding and struggle to know the difference between fact and fiction; give us wisdom. R

When those around us are anxious; help us to be a calm presence. R

When we are inconvenienced; give us perspective and patience. R

When we find ourselves in despair; give us hope. R

Help us to expand our love, grow in our compassion, and spread a message of hope. R

Lord, lead us to our neighbors that are in need of your light. Show us how to be the helpers. R

In the midst of uncertainty, help us to lean into faith and away from fear. R   Amen.
